I enjoyed it overall but was really disappointed with the ending, for example I brought back a literal dinosaur and other bits and pieces of dinosaurs I killed while having tons of film of being back in the dinosaur ages while also produing movies about the science of time travel/dinosaurs. But everyone still thinks I didn't invent time travel because of what some rich guy said, despite having living proof.. Felt extremely railroaded.. This game costed me 7 minutes of my life time. It's complete crab.. Felt extremely railroaded.. But everyone still thinks I didn't invent time travel because of what some rich guy said, despite having living proof.. The story is mediocre and dull. The choices presented are wide ranged with multiple stats. Buy only if you like the demo and just want to pass time.. loved seeing the development of the characters, and all ended well. I'm slightly disappointed I don't have my own dinosaur though. 10/10.
